First XI

| | | | |
|-----------------|-------|--------------|-------|
| Templestowe | 6/170 | Nunawading | 9/169 |
| Andrew Hone | 2/31 | Andrew Hone | 61 |
| Karan Chandra | 2/36 | Dave Stewart | 29 |
| Manoj Rajamohan | 1/10 | | |

After a disappointing performance to start the season, we travelled the long road down to Templestowe. For those occupying the car with Karan, it was even longer. Aiming for the first win of the season we called for the Kev's. 'Caramel Kev' Allen, 'Baby Kev' Karan and new boy 'Dr Kev' Manoj were added to the team to add to the 14 batsman, 8 wicketkeepers and Matty Meehan.

After losing the toss we were asked to bowl and started poorly with Templestowe getting to 60 after 10 overs. Luckily bowling with great courage, with an extremely painful shoulder injury sustained for the first time in his life last week (that's what the insurance forms say anyway) Honie snapped up our first 2 wickets. Dave then executed the beautiful pick-up and throw to execute a run out and Templestowe were quickly 3 for 62. Tight bowling by Rusty Warburton and Karan and Manoj picked up a wicket with his second ball for the club allowed us to restrict Templestowe to 170.

In reply we started poorly, losing Brad in the first over but Caramel Kev and Dave consolidated until they were both dismissed near drinks. Honie and Manoj joined together to take the score to about 80. Unfortunately Arjuna Hone broke down with cramp during this partnership, after he had scored an exhaustive 2 or 3 (runs). Wickets fell and saw us at 5-90. Arjuna Hone was joined by Nathan and they proceeded to add 50 in a partnership, with Arjuna's courageous innings beginning to become reminiscent of Dean Jones epic 210 nearly 25 years ago. With 2 overs to go 21 were needed and unfortunately a loss of wickets led to us falling one run short, even after Monty blasted a few late boundaries.

Congratulations to Honie who led from the front with a great captains knock of 61, and for Brad who basically doing all the running for the final 59 runs of it, but unfortunately we're now 0 from 2 and wanting to make sure we put in a great performance this week.

Second XI

| | | | |
|---------------|-----------|-------------------|-------------|
| Deakin | 75 | Nunawading | 4/77 |
| Will Dalton | 2/8 | Cam | 23 |
| Mick McKay | 6/3 | Mick Fairweather | 18 |

After a tumultuous week of being slagged off by Yarraleen's (toilet of a club) secretary on some 2 bit forum run by forest hill peanuts, the nuna 2's turned up to the bottom ground, now known as the cauldron. Opposition teams turn up at their own peril, we own the cauldron...pity we don't play there again.

Our opposition, Deakin (Uni? I don't know, they weren't very smart) won the toss & elected to bat & after a few overs you could see why, they wanted to get the pain out of the way. After a stirring speech from grounds keeper willy, you could feel the vibe amongst the team...we were going to win & they were going to sook like little girls cause of a barrage of fast bowling & merciless sledging. Bomber & Mil took the new ball, both bowling well, especially Mil. If the pitch was a dart board, Mil hit triple twenty a lot of times. Somehow, Deakin (who can't play a shot on the off side on purpose) managed to maintain a 3 per over run rate till the drinks break...but we'd taken 4 of their duds too.

The bowling change was the major turning point, Mick McKay & the grounds keeper himself destroyed the tail...Mick taking 6/3 & GK Will taking 2/8, this combined with Mil's 2/13(ish) & Bomber rediscovering his inner bastard pinching the first wicket...it was good to see the mad russian back...till he threatens to stab me through the heart with a stump again...fair to say I'll never drop a catch off the big fella again. Funny observation, at least 8 of the Deakin players looked alike...fat top halves & skinny legs. Weird. Must've been from america's very deep south.

Stu & I strode to the crease to a barrage of sledging from the deakin slips corden, but, it was water off a ducks back...mostly because they were regurgitating everything we'd said to them when we bowled! Again I ask, are these uni students? If so, I'd be checking the originality of their assignments...plagarise much?? Back to the game, Stu clearly had somewhere to be & had a red hot dip from the first ball he faced...didn't last long, caught at slip for a deuce. Ano then came in at 3 looking to avenge his blob of last week...he's still looking...2 for him too.

The original Kev came to the wicket & as usual looked unflustered, playing whatever shot he wanted whenever he wanted until his new nemesis struck...the beginner umpire of sub continental descent. Kev copped his second highly dubious LBW decision after being hit in the guts...or close enough to them...maybe we're not paying the umpires enough?

Curvacious Kev & I put on a handy partnership, pushing us past halfway till I found my kryptonite & flurried at a ball outside off...caught at point. The job was left to Cam & Matty 'Amish Bluto' Furlong to guide us home. One more glitch, Cam out just before the end...worked out well as Big Kev Morilly strode out & slapped a big boundary to truly break the Deakin spirit.

Nuna win by 6 wickets & finish the one dayers 1 & 1.

Third XI

| | | | |
|------------------|------|----------------|----------|
| Kerrimuir | 131 | Nunawading | 1/139 |
| Chris Castalucci | 3/20 | Darren Garrett | 101 n.o. |
| Scott O'Neill | 2/18 | Derek Clark | 28 n.o. |
| Manpreet Sandhu | 2/25 | | |

The composition of the 3rds side changed significantly from the previous week, with new faces including Chris Castelluci, Scotty O'Neill, Craig McDonald, Andy Lord, and also Scotty Millar after Dave Cowell pulled out at the last moment with flu. However, the guys all gelled well together and the team spirit was great.

After losing the toss we bowled, and an excellent start from Scotty O'Neill and Sam soon saw the opposition reduced to 4/30. The other side then dug in for some painfully slow batting before further wickets fell. The middle of the innings was supported by good tight spells from Jason Cutrupi and Andy Lord. At about the 25 over mark, Casta and Darren Garret took over the attack and a strong spell from Casta saw the remainder of the wickets fall, supported by some great fielding and catching.

Scotty Millar and Derek Clark headed the batting with a solid start before Scotty was dismissed. Daren Garrett then came to the crease and after a watchful start soon took control and batted his way to a spectacular 101 not out and was supported by Derek Clark who ended at 28 not out. We passed them after for the loss of only one wicket so it was a comfortable win in the end.

The fielding was a real highlight with one run out and another that was out but not given not out. Also the ground fielding and catching was terrific. The buzz was great after the game. Lets keep the momentum going!

MOM: Darren Garrett

Fourth XI

| Nunawading | 7/241 (cc) | Doncaster | 174 |
|-------------------|-------------------|------------------|------------------|
| Craig Thompson | 70 | Dave Johnstone | 5/42 off 9 overs |
| Rod Jones | 52* | Glen Mackie | 1/35 off 8 overs |
| Glen Mackie | 34 | | |
| Simon Keele | 22 | | |

This week the Fours played Doncaster at Boronia Gve Reserve. We won the toss and elected to have a bat.

We had an immediate advantage as the Doncaster boys took to the field with 8 blokes, with another two rocking up about 30 minutes in to the innings.

We got off to a flyer again however it came at the cost. Ant, Leggy and Paddy were soon back in the sheds without too many runs on the board. This brought together Thommo and Daz who put on a respectable innings of about 50 odd until Daz got caught behind for 22.

Next in was Max who put on 34 in no time hitting plenty of boundaries eventually being cleaned up, bowled. Meanwhile, Thommo had crafted a fine of 50 at the other end and was looking good to put on a few more. Thommo was joined by Rocket Rod Jones who started off looking a bit scratchy but soon found form and started putting runs on the board. Thommo eventually fell after skying one to be out for a fine stand and career best of 70. This brought the slugger Keeley in with eight overs to go. Together with Jonsey they brought the innings to a close. Jonsey slapped a 4 off the penultimate ball to finish on a very respectable 52* and Keeley an admirable 22* to leave us in really strong position with 7/241 on the board.

Not having the Lord boys on duty for us this week were looking a bit fragile in the bowling department with Max and a pretty stiff Thommo taking the new ball and bowling steadily for the first 12 overs.

However, the Doncaster boys started off looking pretty solid putting on about 50 for the first wicket. They were going on pretty steadily, although well behind the run rate they required to win. The first change saw Keeley and myself (DJ) come into the attack. Keeley was bowling a good stump to stump line and creating heaps of opportunities with not much coming to fruition. He got the breakthrough bowling their number 4 with a nice delivery that nipped back in from leg to off. At the other end I started off with a couple of pies that barely made the pitch and were pushed around for a couple of singles, but the batsmen were looking to take me on which is exactly what I wanted them to do. I think it was in my third over when I eventually struck upsetting one blokes off-stump which was followed up the next ball with a spectacular stumping by Jonsey. This put me on a hat-trick for the first ball of the next over. A bit nervous, I pitched it a bit short and the batsmen defended it away. The rest of the batsmen fell at regular intervals and the skipper ended up with figures of 5/42 which included another Jonsesy stumping and a catch by Max and Paddy respectively. Max finished their innings off clean bowling their last batsmen to leave them all out for 176. I feel this was probably 30 to 40 runs too many as we spilt about 9 catches and allowed a few unnecessary boundaries. However, it was a good win in the end and I feel that as a group we have real potential to be a formidable team for the coming season.

Man of the Match

Craig Thompson, 70 and 1/35

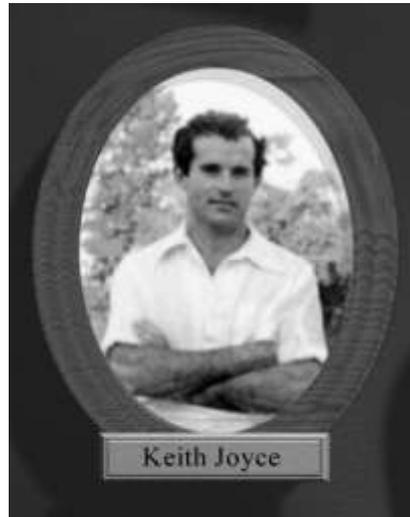

Honorable Mentions

Rod Jones, 52* and two stumpings.

Dave Johnstone, 5/42

Cricket Memories with Keith Joyce

This week, we asked some questions of Nuna legend Keith Joyce.
Life member and member of the Team of The Century.

Q1. Please let us know a bit about yourself and also your history at Nunawading. What are your personal and career highlights and what you are doing now. What are your memories of the great games you played in?

I am married to Bev, living in Mentone and have 5 kids with wife/partner in brackets, namely: Matthew(Kirsty), Daniel (Loree), James (Elizabeth), Kathryn (Scott) & another Matthew (Maegan). There are 3 grandchildren at present: Isabelle, Ryder, Mya and one on the way. Born in 1951, I first played cricket in the Eltham area (Diamond Valley) - I think I was 15 having never played before. I played in the under 16 side in the first year and managed a first ball duck in both innings (stumped both times). The second year in under 16' I was a batting allrounder and won a spot in the Association under age side as such and also played in the afternoon in the seniors. I managed to win the club U16 bowling that year. The side I was with (St Andrews) only had one senior side and the club folded the next year.

I then joined a very strong side (Montmorency) and played in their ones at 17 years of age as a 4 or 5 bat. The only times I really got a bowl was when the game was over. We won the top grade grand final that year with my contribution being mainly in the finals as a bat where I managed 45 in the first final and 60 odd in the grand final.

I finished High School playing portions of seasons and found myself unable to train because I gained employment in Melbourne.

At 20 years of age I was conscripted into the Army. Conscription brought together people from various backgrounds. From a sporting point of view I played mid-week inter-service football and cricket, playing with and against such names as Bernie Quinlan & Peter Welsch and Rodney Hogg respectively.. That was my introduction to turf which by chance moved me more into being a bowler than a batsman.

After leaving the Army I found myself living in Flemington and wondered down the street to an oval and began playing with a side that was coming into the top grade of cricket having won the premiership in the lower grade the previous year. We had a successful year culminating in a grand final win. That game was memorable in that we lost the first inning by about 35 runs, and reversed that with an outright win. I managed 5 for 65 in the first innings and 8 for 18 in the second.

I then moved to Croydon to live and worked in Box Hill. So I found myself travelling down Canterbury Road on a daily basis. Cricket season was looming and I was without a side when one of my work associates suggested Nunawading. I drove to the oval and found a hive of activity at the nets. At the time Nunawading had 8 senior sides and 6 junior sides. What I didn't realize was the strength of the club with players such as Trevor Hutchins, Ian Rowe, Grant McDonald, Frank Ryan, Russell Baird, John O'Sullivan to name just a few..

That was way back in 1974/75. The first year I played was in the two's as a top order bat and opening bowler with an occasional game in the one's.

One of those days in the two's was with Mick McLachlan as my captain (yeah father of Ian). We were in a spot of bother trying to get the opposition out when Mick came onto bowl - (for those that don't know he bowled spin). I was younger, fitter and could field - so I was in the outfield.

The rest is folk law - three huge outfield catches off Mick and a win to Nunawading. By the way the catches get harder each time I tell the story.

Q2. Which was your favourite season, where you or the team excelled?

There were many but I will keep it brief:

The 80's were great years for our club:

Games against Heatherdale were always a good contest. The games that come to mind were Grand Finals

The games that we won 81/82 & 83/84 were won by margins of 3 and 10 runs respectively.

In 83/84 we had lost Clive Mullett before the game and had a very young Mal West (16 year old) behind the stumps. The game was on a knife edge throughout the final with partnerships accumulating runs whilst wickets were falling throughout the day. What I didn't know was the chat going on by Mal to unsettle whoever was batting. A great team effort played in the right spirit.

The other game that comes to mind is the grand final against Templestowe (79/80) which also stands out in that Templestowe planned on batting as long as they could. What resulted was a boring game for all and it would seem for the umpire aswell. He suggested, during the game, that I slow my delivery which provided a bit more swing and a great deal more turn off the wicket. The batsman holding us up was soon out and Templestowe crumbled from there. In those days the bowling side had the option of taking a new ball when 65 overs had been bowled. The umpire was not amused when I completed my individual 65th over and asked if I could have a new ball.

The last fond memory is a game when I played in the 8ths with Matthew and Daniel against an undefeated opposition. I was injured at the time, Matthew was studying at the time and therefore not meant to play. The opposition were full of how good they were and as I was standing at square leg umpiring I heard what they had done to opposition sides and what they were going to do to us. After all we hadn't won a game and were bottom of the ladder. In short we thrashed them outright. I didn't do a lot that day but it was a terrific memory to play in the same team as Matt & Dan. I also had to opportunity to play in another game with Daniel and James which was good fun, if not a bit tense at times.

Q3. Please provide any other information you would like to such as a funny story or significant event/milestone during your career.

I feel very privileged to have played cricket at Nunawading and develop long standing friendships with great guys who just happen to be talented cricketers. Tops of the list (in no particular order) include Trevor Hutchins, Alan Gale, the Saker Boys, Clive Mullett, Ian Donaldson, Mal West and John O'Sullivan.

I particularly enjoyed the opportunity to play beside my boys.

I remember well:

- the Rosebud Xmas training sessions with a few reds being consumed.

- bowling to GT in the nets

- building the club rooms upstairs

- having cow lotto on the main oval

- naming the ground after Bob Saker

- Dono coming into the ones as a bat.

- having indoor sessions at Burwood Teacher College

- seeing Sully make his last ton in Shield

- Dolan head butting a catch over the boundary for 6

- watching Tynan launch opposition out of the park

- having drinks after the game in players back yards

- Jerker getting lots of wickets

- Greg Voutier bowling off 17 yards in the nets

- Saults bending it like Beckham

- Graham Harris hitting the ball for three but strolling through for one

- Heather turning up to the cricket the first time

- The speed of the leg side stumpings from Clive & Mal

And finally I remember that we were the club to beat.

Q4. Finally, can you please note why you played cricket for Nunawading and the strengths of the Club during your career.

Nunawading has and continues to be a point of consistency for many who play cricket there. Where mates produce great feats because of who they play for.

It's a place that my boys have grown up with memories of great friendship and sometimes ridiculous events.

A tale of two Harries.

Another win to the Third XI and another century to a Harry, this time in the guise of Darren "Harry" Garrett.

Harry launched in to Kerrimuir this week as the Threes were chasing 131. To make 102 not out in a 40 over 1 day game batting second is a pretty good effort especially when only chasing 131. The week before Paul "Harro" Harrison walloped a lazy 142 not out with a six off his first ball just to ease into things.

The club website poll asks who will make more runs. So far Harro has the drop being 20 odd ahead with neither yet to lose their wicket. This poses as danger for the Third XI's opposition especially when one or the other is unavailable providing the necessary motivation for a big one for one Harry to get the jump on the other.

With two blokes like this running amok in the thirds (C1) it says a great deal about the depth of the club. Being old enough to remember Number 96 is also a guaranteed path into the third XI which is well worth it, so I'm told, just to hear "Deadly" Derek Clark bellow "C'mon Cricket Club". Just a thought Deadly, there's usually two cricket clubs involved.

The ones again fell short, this time by one lousy run denying the club the opportunity of 100% success across all teams for the first time since Rod Jones had hair (on his head that is). The twos got on their merry way with Mick McKay taking a lazy 6/3 (c'mon Jar-Jar how could you let them get three runs?) and the threes and fours just went about their business as usual and are already looking a good chance to play finals. With the Harries on the park they're a chance to bring home another flag. The two were ably aided by the promotion of Club President St Hamilton after his glorious 1 in the thirds the previous week. He replied with a scintillating 2. Look for his elevation to the firsts this week.

This inter- team rivalry between Harry and Harro is reminiscent of some seriously great rivalries. Collingwood and Carlton. Essendon and Carlton. Richmond and Carlton. The AFL salary cap investigation officer and Carlton. Australia and England in just about anything. England and Germany in soccer and the odd World War. The Hadfields and the McCoys. The singing Von Trapp family and the local Viennese Nazi Party (how do you solve a problem like Maria?). Brendan Fevola and the Christian right wing movement. Jesus and the Pharisees. Grand Inquisitor Cardinal Richlieu and the poor old persecuted Huguenots (damned heretics confess!). Lordy and any night club bouncer. Willy D and the Australian Ranga Association (c'mon Will you're fooling nobody, besides Mick Fairweather watches you undress and has confirmed your dirty little secret). All great rivalries.

Some of these rivalries are healthy and some lead to torture and burning at the stake (if only we could do that to Forest Hill) but on most occasions a decent old rivalry is good for the game and the team.

In this one I look forward to seeing Harry and Harro bat together one day, put on 350 and both finish on 175 not out. The team will benefit, nearby windows will be smashed and in the celebrations to ensue Lordy may well belt someone.

Please don't let it be ...

The Scribe.

Treasurers Report

SENIOR SUBSCRIPTIONS 2009/10 - DIRECT DEBIT OPTION

This season, if players are unable to pay the fees in one payment prior to 15th October, 2009, there will be Direct Debit for player subscriptions, which is mandatory.

A Direct Debit Option would mean a couple of things.

1. A player is able play and be financial by committing to regular fortnightly payments.

Over 11 fortnights this amounts to $27.27 (if the fee is $300)

2. The club and committee are not chasing people for money (our committee is not set to run Credit Management tasks) and the club receives fee revenue expected.

Many of us have been involved in clubs that have this in place and it is a success. There is no other option. If a player does commit to pay in full or by direct debit, they do NOT play for Nunawading.

Fees are: $300, or full time students $150.

If any player has any personal financial hardship that they wish to raise with the Treasurer then they can. If a player pays his subscriptions and then for any reason is unable to continue playing, pro rata refund can be made. Feedback on this policy is welcome.

Did You Know?

The share markets here and overseas have the greatest impact on your superannuation returns. It has been a trying year and some negative returns have been seen. But occasional bouts of negative returns are the price we have to pay for the higher returns growth assets provide over the time. Switching to cash may make sleeping at night easier when markets are falling, but it's likely to ensure lower long term returns. The key is to adopt an appropriate long term strategy and stick to it!
